

Dear artists, musicians, DJs, and creative minds,

At FATAL, we place great importance on ensuring that everyone who visits our space or contributes to it as a volunteer feels welcome and respected. Music and art should be a space for connection, exchange, and joy, where no one feels discriminated against or harassed.

We ask you to consider before your event whether your performance aligns with our shared understanding. For us, this means that music and art should never discriminate based on gender, disability, sexual orientation, origin, appearance, or body type. Additionally, attitudes or content rooted in machismo, chauvinism, nationalism, patriotism, or anti-semitism have no place here.

If any violations of these principles occur, we reserve the right to interrupt or temporarily pause the event. We understand that topics such as artistic freedom, satire, parody, and political provocation can often spark complex discussions. We are always open to communication and clarifying conversations.

If you have any questions, we are happy to assist you.
